PREFATORY NOTE.

THE PROPRIETORS of the 'EDINBURGH AND LEITH POST OFFICE DIRECTORY' have pleasure in informing their Subscribers that the One Hundred and Thirty-fourth Annual Edition will be issued at the end of May as usual.

For the convenience of our clients the Names and Addresses of Residents in the following places, Blackhall, Colinton, Corstorphine, Craigmillar, Davidson's Mains, Liberton, Lothianburn, Slateford, Barnton and Cramond, Duddingston, Gilmerton, Juniper Green, and Niddrie, will be found alphabetically arranged in a Special Section, in addition to being shown in the General Directory and also in the Street Directory.

The Section containing Apartments, Boarding Houses, Hotels, etc., has been enlarged, and will be found of great benefit to Visitors and others seeking temporary residence in the City.

This Edition embraces several important Towns in Stirlingshire, Fife, Clackmannanshire, Midlothian, East and West Lothian, Berwickshire, Peeblesshire, Selkirkshire, and Roxburghshire, which will be greatly appreciated by professional and business people generally. The 'Trades' belonging to these Counties will be found at the end of each County, arranged alphabetically.

There is an Alphabetical List of Residences and their Occupants for the above Counties, as well as for the City and Suburbs.

Edinburgh and Leith Postal Districts.—For the convenience of the public generally, two examples are given, showing how letters, parcels, newspapers, etc., ought to be addressed; the number at the beginning of each street indicates the Postal District to which the street belongs. The attention of the public is specially drawn to this correct method of addressing their letters, etc.

The Register of Streets has been carefully revised, and embraces an index to the Map, the Registrars' Districts, and the Municipal Wards as contained in Greater Edinburgh, as well as the Clerks for the Proclamation of Banns.

With this issue is given the new Map of Edinburgh, showing the Ward Boundaries, and also a 10-mile-to-the-inch Map, embracing the Eastern and Southern Counties referred to in the fourth paragraph.

The Telephone Directory alphabetically and numerically arranged and brought up to date will be found most advantageous to business circles in Edinburgh, Leith, and Suburban Districts.

The Proprietors desire to express their gratitude to the public for the unfailing and liberal support accorded them from year to year; and also to the gentlemen connected with the various Public Institutions and Societies of the City and surrounding districts for the information supplied by them.

The Public are respectfully reminded that the Proprietors insert the names of persons only who authorise the insertions and accept the conditions and terms of publication.

Every effort has been made to ensure accuracy, but the Proprietors do not accept responsibility for errors or omissions.

 All Communications on Directory business should be addressed to the EDITOR, EDINBURGH AND LEITH POST OFFICE DIRECTORY LTD., who shall give careful and prompt attention to all inquiries.
